

Subscribing to Blogs at Waimairi

Step 1: Firstly the blog needs the Gadget 'Follow By Email', which was recently added by students to their blogs.

Step 2: Go to the Waimairi School Home page, and select the 'Blog Station' tab up the top of the page.

Step 3: Scroll down to find the class the student is in. The classes are written in black text.

Science reflection

I showed the qualities of a scientist curious because I was wondered what was going to happen and I asked questions about what I they thought would happen. I sought feedback to see what I could improve on my drawing. We used our strugglometer to show how much many strategies we used while we were doing different activities.

Here are photos of my strugglometer, project and my insect drawing:
