Kia Ora,

Weekly school renewal update

In the week of 7 August 2017 the master plan for the Waimairi school site was reviewed by the Ministry of Educations Design Review Panel (DRP). We have a feedback meeting with the MoE planned for next week where they will fill us in on any revisions or changes requested by the DRP.

While this has been happening we have also started to work on plans for keeping the school running during the construction phase.

It is a complex task requiring some creative thinking to keep things ticking along as the school also turns into a building site.

We are nearly ready to share more detailed plans and arrangements for the rebuilding of our school. At this stage we plan to hold info' workshops for you on Thursday 31 August at 9am and repeated at 7pm. This is an exciting time for the school and we are looking forward to sharing the bigger picture and the important smaller details with you. Put this in your diary now.

If you are new to Waimairi School you can get yourself up to speed with the school renewal process here <http://www.waimairi.school.nz/renewal.html>

Whānau group meeting 23 August. 7:30pm in the library.

This group is for anyone with an interest in Māori engagement and achievement at Waimairi School. We'll be discussing Te Reo Maori Wiki - Māori Language Week and The Tuhono Festival for the kapa haka among other things.

Tillman Ave

Please remember that the yellow lines at the end of Tillman Ave mean a no stopping zone. This is not a drop off spot. Stopping (or parking) on the yellow lines causes other cars to reverse to turn around, and this creates a hazard with so many children close to reversing cars at the start and end of the school day.

CCC parking officers are visiting and recording rego numbers of cars stopping on the yellow lines, fine notices will arrive in the mail.

Rail Safety Week

Regular trains are returning to our neighbourhood. The Kaikoura quake repairs are running ahead of schedule and the Main North Line is about to be re-activated, so now is a good time to re-visit the basics of being track-safe with your children. You will find some useful resources here <http://www.tracksafe.co.nz/media/rail-safety-week>

Have a great week.
Mike

Tuhono Cultural Festival

Thursday 21 September, 7pm, Old St Andrew's Gym - mark your diaries, especially if your child is in Kapa Haka. This will be a fantastic evening of competition Kapa Haka. Our Y3-6 Kapa Haka will be competing against local schools. Tickets will be on sale next week.
